Subject.—

Strength of parties in the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council.

Now that the results of the elections to the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council have been duly published, I submit herewith for His Highness' gracious information a statement showing the strength of parties in the two Chambers.

Out of 298 seats open for election in the Representative Assembly, 287 seats have been filled. Of these, 102 seats are filled by Congress men. Similarly, out of 44 seats open for election in the Legislative Council, 41 have been filled and the number of members returned on the Congress ticket is 16. The numbers of nonCongress candidates who have secured seats in the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council are 152 ~~157~~ and 19 ~~28~~ respectively. The party affiliations of these members are not definitely known at present.

I submit the above for His Highness' gracious perusal.

MEMBER OF COUNCIL.

Bangalore,
26th February 1941.
